REACHING SCANDINAVIA BY WAY OF JESUS

Dear Pastors, Churches, and Praying Friends,

Thank you for your prayers and support for our family and ministry. The past couple of months have been somewhat strange as the world has turned its attention to battling the corona virus. But our understanding of the pandemic, as well as the impact of a nation-wide lockdown, has only been that of a distant viewer. Sweden is one of the few countries in Europe (if not the only country in Europe) that took a more relaxed approach to dealing with the virus. Other than some restrictions on larger group gatherings (including sporting/entertainment events, universities and high schools, etc.) the Swedish economy remains open and in full swing, with basic social distancing precautions set in place. Many corporations have encouraged those employees who can work from home to do so. This approach to the virus has not yet had the adverse effects that one might think, which is a good thing. As for the churches, nearly all of them have closed their doors for the time being and have resorted to digital means of ministering to their people. Our church here in Sweden has temporarily resorted to the same measures. It is currently hard to tell how long this way of life will continue, or how long these restrictions will stay in place. Admittedly, there is an unnatural feeling when preaching/teaching via recorded video or livestream (as opposed to a live, visible audience), but the circumstances seem to demand it and the experience has pushed God's churches and ministers to stretch their creativity and push their abilities to new heights. Please pray that God would grant us much wisdom for the days ahead.

Since arriving in Sweden nine months ago, we have lived in three rental properties. The constant moving and living out of suitcases was a challenge. But God has graciously provided us with a house to live in for the long term. We were able to move in during April and are now busy unpacking our belongings that we had shipped over when we first arrived. It is our prayer that a sense of being settled will only benefit our efforts here in Sweden. Thank you for praying for us during this process of immigration. We are excited to see what the Lord has in store.

May God richly bless you,
